A PROSPECT OF SETTLING

GERMAN CLAIM TO ARMS EQUALITY

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

GENEVA, Dec. 11.
THERE is every prospect of a settlement of the equality formula which was announced to-day. The French Government have assented to the formula and it is expected the German Government will reply favourably, while agreement by Italy, Britain and America is assured.
It is understood the formula provides: firstly, a declaration of the equality status of Germany and other disarmed Powers on the lines of M. Herriot's proposed formula, but it provides that means for realisation should be worked out together with the question of security at the Disarmament Conference.
Secondly, it provides for a declaration by four great Powers, America excepted, that they will renounce recourse to force as an instrument of national policy on the lines of Sir John Simon's proposed declaration. It is open to all other Powers similarly to declare.
Thirdly, Mr. MacDonald will inform the Chairman of the Disarmament Conference that Germany will return to the Conference.
Agreement Reached.
GENEVA, Dec. 11.
A draft formula of the German armaments equality claim, satisfactory to the French and Germans, has been reached, subject to the approval of their Governments.
A communiqué says that after conversations, which lasted all day, representatives of the five Powers reached such a point at 7.30 and that it was agreed that the Governments themselves of France, Germany and Italy should be consulted.
GERMANY ACCEPTS
GENEVA, Dec. 11.
Germany has accepted the equality formula and it is probable the German representative will attend a meeting of the Bureau of the Disarmament Conference on December 12, and the General Commission on Dec. 14.

JAPANESE NAVAL PROPOSALS

CAUSE AGITATION IN BRITISH CIRCLES

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

GENEVA, Dec. 11.
A NEW ratio for capital ships of 11-11.5, instead of 5-5.5 with a relative strength of 275,000 tons for the British Empire and the United States; 300,000 for Japan; 150,000 for France and Italy, with no fixed number of units for the latter is the chief feature of the Japanese naval proposals issued to-day.
Capital ships should be limited to 25,000 tons and 14-inch guns; cruisers to 10,000 tons and 6,000 tons; submarines 1,800 tons; aircraft-carriers should be abolished and 11-11.5 is the actual number of capital ships proposed.
French Press Views.
PARIS, Dec. 11.
L'Excelsior says that the Japanese naval proposals provoke considerable agitation in British circles because, as contrary to forecasts, Japan raises the question of the London and Washington Treaties.
The proposal is considered favourable to France as it will concede to France her actual number of units, while reserving facilities for agreement with Italy.
Popular opinion declares that the figures proposed by Japan practically assure her supremacy in the Pacific.

JAPANESE DUMPING IN INDIA

STRONG PROTEST FROM LANCASHIRE

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

LONDON, Dec. 10.
PLANS to hold mass meetings throughout all Lancashire in protest against foreign competition in cotton piece-goods, particularly against the dumping of Japanese textiles in India, colonies and dependencies, were made at a meeting in Manchester largely attended by leading spinners, manufacturers, merchants and shippers yesterday.
A resolution calling on the Government to prevent such competition by securing, firstly, assurance that no import duties would be placed in India, the colonies or dependencies on British goods, other than those necessary for revenue purposes; secondly, that duties imposed in the said countries should be such as to enable British products fair competition. Thirdly, the foregoing measures should be associated with preferential trading between empire units, the meeting urged.

PIECE GOODS MARKET

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE REPORTS

The Hong Kong General Chamber of Commerce states that the following reports have been received:—

Prices for White Shirtings remain steady but there is not much demand for Grey, clearances of which are rather slow. Black Italianas are reported to be in better demand, as well as Cotton Coatings. Manchester prices are a little easier but the drop is more than offset by the decline in exchange.

The latest Cotton prices to hand are those of the 9th inst.:

American Mid. "Spot" 5.04d.
Egyptian Sakel, F.G.T. "Spot" 6.77d.

Woolens.

Local prices for most woolens remains unsatisfactory and stocks can only be sold at a great sacrifice. Clearances have been on a smaller scale. It is estimated that about three-quarters of this year's cargo has gone into consumption. The demand for Wool Yarns is poor and stocks are reported to be heavy.

A.O.F.C. Average of Shanghai Stocks

A.O.F.C. MARKET COMMENT

Dec. 6, 1932.
Business activity was at a standstill on the Shanghai Stock Market on Settlement Day, while traders were engaged in settling their accounts. A sale of Trams "B" at 30.50 was the only transaction on a bigger scale. On the following day interest was concentrated on debentures, a sale of Shanghai Land 6% debentures was reported unofficially at 101. Thursday's trading was a complete absence of interest for stocks. On rumours of the amalgamation of Yangtze Finance and Trusts there was a mild rallying of these shares. Business in Yangtze Finance was done at 1.40 and in Trusts at 2.10. December. Sentiment remained unchanged during Friday. Interest for stocks was at a low ebb, but there was good demand for China Realty debentures at 99. Some improvement was noticeable during Saturday's half day session. Shanghai Land was the most active; business was done at 22. December. Interest for this stock was carried over to Monday, when it had good buyers at 23. Ewos were somewhat easier. Business was done at 14 cash and December, about 6,000 shares changing hands.

The view of the market was passing through a period of hand to mouth buying, due to the tightness of money and the approach of annual settlement. The chief event in the local markets during the past week was the drop in exchange. Sugar prices advanced sharply and import of wheat has become more difficult.

Dwindling of volume of stock trading indicates the extent to which commitments have been deferred pending the evidences of genuine business improvement. After the announcement of earnings reports of individual companies stock prices should reflect adequately the investment merits of sound issues.

ARTIFICIAL SILK PATENTS

LAW SUIT THAT MAY LAST WEEKS

London, Nov. 3. Litigation concerning artificial silk patents was begun in the Chancery Division when Mr. Justice Clayton has before him an action, the hearing of which is expected to last some weeks.

It was brought by British Celanese Ltd., of Celanese House, Hanover-square, who alleged an infringement of their patents by defendants, Courtaulds Ltd., of St. Martin's-le-grand.

Defendants have works at Fulehill-road and Chapel-lane, Coventry, where, it was alleged, the branches of patents took place. Plaintiffs' works are at Spodden, Derby. Sir Arthur Colfax, K.C., for plaintiff, said that the action was brought upon four patents, of which plaintiffs were the registered legal owners. The first three patents were concerned with the production of artificial silk, but the fourth was not wholly connected with that production.

The fourth patent was granted to Vickers Limited in 1921. The other three patents were dated 1922, 1922 and 1922 respectively.

"Dry" Process.

Plaintiffs' first three patents related to the evaporative or dry spinning of filaments of a derivative of cellulose. British Celanese Limited were the pioneers in the production of acetate silk, their product being known by the name Celanese. Acetate silk, so far as he was aware, was never produced commercially prior to the date of plaintiffs' first patent in 1920.

Its production had grown until to-day it formed a very important industry not only in this country, but on the Continent, in the United States and in Canada. Whether they would hear evidence of an attempt to produce acetate silk by a wet process he did not know, but it was never produced until the date of plaintiffs' patents by any dry spinning method, and, as far as he knew, it had never been produced except by use of plaintiffs' invention.

Courtaulds were pre-eminent in this country in the trade, and they were the pioneers of the viscose silk industry, in which they attained an unchallengeable position even before the war. About 1926, or later, Courtaulds—whether or not because Celanese always commanded a higher price than did their product he did not know—were minded to commence experiments in the production of acetate silk, and for the past three years they had competed with plaintiffs.

"We are complaining," added Sir Arthur, "of the use by Courtaulds of a process and apparatus which has been inspired at every turn by a knowledge of the specifications of my clients' patents. So far as the first two patents are concerned, they have followed as closely as possible exactly what is described in those specifications."

A Counter-Claim.

In their defence Courtaulds denied that they had infringed plaintiffs' patents, whose validity they attacked. There was a counter-claim for revocation of the patents on the ground that they were not novel; by reason of prior publication in a number of patents dating from 1897, and they did not contain proper subject matter. It was also said that the patents were not useful, and that the specifications were ambiguous.

MESSRS. HARRIMAN'S REPORT

MARKET MORE ACTIVE

The market has been very active during the week under review and a considerable turnover has taken place in the lower priced issues. Rates held fairly well and during the week there was more than one effort at recovery for instance Lights at one time came back to $14.75, Hotels to $10.50, and Cements (comb.) to $11.00, although they closed slightly under these rates. Realities however were weak throughout with business done down to $7.50. Providents (old) were done and were on offer at $4.00. The Investment section was steady with enquiries for Trains at $20.50 after business done at $22.40. Telephone at $25.75, Lands at $7.00 and Electrics at $7.00. The sterling section was featureless, but a few Banks changed hands at $1.00 and Unions at $2.00. The tone of the (Continued on next column)

BUSINESS OF EMPIRE DEVELOPMENT

CANADA BUYS A MILLION TONS OF BRITISH COAL

Montreal, Canada.—There is a fine, healthy tone to Canada's business with the Empire as seen from this great port, and in many branches the improvement of the past year is very marked. Anthracite coal is a conspicuous example of the present trend. Up to the end of September imports this year from the United Kingdom amounted to 830,609 tons, which was far higher than the total for any other complete year, and there was little doubt that more than one million tons would be unloaded here before the close of navigation. Imports of British bituminous and British coke also were higher.

Shipments of Canadian apples to the United Kingdom in early October were 25 per cent. higher than last year, while the figures for New York showed a marked decrease. In eight months to the end of August, 8,600,568 pounds of Canadian tobacco was shipped to the United Kingdom, an increase of 100 per cent. in a year.

Trade With Australia and New Zealand.

Trade with Australia and New Zealand has shown a distinct advance of late, in both exports and imports. Evidence of the new trend was seen in the arrival here of the British motorship Forrebank with eight thousand tons of sugar from Australia, the largest sent from that Dominion to Montreal in a long time. Much of our sugar comes from South Africa, and thirteen steamers with 100,000 tons of it are expected here before navigation ends. Representations have been made by British East Africa with a view to increasing use in Canadian binder twine of sisal produced in that country.

The United States is losing its predominant place in trade with Jamaica, won during the war, and official reports show large increases in the business being done there by Canada, the United Kingdom, New Zealand and other nations.

Grain shipments out of Montreal this season have been very heavy, and it is noted that the steamer warlike set a record for the port, if not for the world, by loading 308,933 bushels in six hours, or an average of 51,377 bushels per hour.

market this week appears to be rather less uncertain than its predecessors and it may be indicative of a general recovery in prices in the new year. This remains to be seen but at the same time the bearish activities of recent months appear to have come to a halt at last, and it is quite within reason to anticipate a "bullish" market in the Spring, when the figures will be published of many of our local utilities and Industrials who have considerable enhanced profits to show us for 1932.

Banks.—Hong Kong Banks were dealt in at $1.05, closing in demand at $1.04; Bank of East Asia were on offer at $1.08, buyers offering $1.06.

Insurance.—Unions changed hands at $5.15.00. China Underwriters were quiet with sellers at $2.30.

Shipping.—Douglases continued in demand at $2.00. Union Waterboats could be placed at $2.00.

Docks, Wharves and Godowns.—Wharves were a bit easier and were placed at $145.00. Providents (old) changed hands at $1.60 closing with sellers at this rate.

Hotels and Real Estate.—Hotels (old) were wanted at $10.20, business having been done at $10.15/40. Hong Kong Lands eased off a little and were put through at $7.00/1. Hong Kong Realities had buyers at $2.50 at the opening, but suffered a sharp decline at the close with sellers at $2.00.

Cotton Mills.—Ewos were put through at $14.50/00, closing with buyers at the former figure.

Public Utilities.—Trams met with enquiries at $20.50, after sales at $20.40. Star Ferries remained in demand at $21.00. China Lights had a sharp rally and were done up to $14.75, but at the close the demand slackened, buyers offering only $12.90. Hong Kong Electrics were transacted at $7.00. Telephone (new) changed hands at $28.00.

Miscellaneous.—Cements (comb.) after recovering to $11.00 again receded a little and were on offer at $11.00. Dairy Farms maintained their strength with buyers at $2.00. Construction (old) had sellers at $2.50.

Forward Settlement Day.—20th December.

"Sea-going sound cameras"

Specially buoyant rafts were floated in deep water beside the

from the wharf where technicians were stationed with generators.

Microphones placed along the yacht rail caught the dialogue between Gilbert, Olga Baclanova, Paul

Owen.

FINAL RACE MEETING PROVES UNLUCKY
FOR MR. LEO FROST

ACCIDENT ON THE GIRAFFE

(BY "MORNING DEW")

The last race meeting of the year at Happy Valley last Saturday proved to be a favourite's day, although there were two big dividends paid over the counter.

Mr. Leo Frost, who finished the season well ahead in the list of successful jockeys, had an extremely unlucky day. He won on Racing Boy and Glengarry and in the last race, when he was riding Gallant Fox, he had to share winning honours with a rank outsider. Mr. Frost was unlucky in not being able to participate in the Queensland Champions, as he was unseated by his mount just as the gate went up. In the other Australian race, Mr. Frost, riding the favourite, But After That, could not get a place. The pony, after starting in a bad start, was either lamed or obstructed during the race and lost much valuable ground.

KING'S BOUNTY PROVES DISAPPOINTING

In the evening race of the day the public made King's Bounty favourite in a field of three, but the race was badly timed and King's Bounty was a very long time before the straight was reached. Mr. Frost on the favourite made a very fast half mile of it, at the beginning, taking 50 seconds for the journey. But thereafter King's Bounty had to go under fire, first to Gay Crusader and then to Elise Star and Gay Crusader won ultimately in 1 minute 59.3 seconds.

Barrier Race Handicap.

In the second race for Australian, Kibera ridden by Mr. Caplan created a surprise and won by a neck from Memmaid with Canby, one of the favourites a short head behind. But After That was fourth, very close up. Mr. Frost rode But After That and after a couple of breakaways at the gate, the pony was right behind the field when the gate went up. But After That ran quite well and was soon among the first six, but he was either crowded or bumped as Mr. Frost was soon to lose ground rapidly between the six and five furlongs point. Up the incline the favourite again made up ground, but once again he was seen to slide back and it was not until the straight was reached that he had clear run. Memmaid Canby ran very strongly in front of the field and led into the straight, two lengths in the van with Tim Tac, Memmaid and Kibera close up. In a striking race for the finish, Kibera managed to win by a neck. The winner paid $192.50 to each of his supporters.

Distance Plate.

Mr. Frost took out King's Council in this race and the public at once made him the favourite. The pony gave a very good account of himself, but The Flower struck a patch of his old form and won the mile race (for "D" Class) in 2:04.2. Orlando made all the running for the first three quarters of a mile, but The Flower and King's Council were both well up all the way and the two passed the leaders in the home straight, finishing in that order. Orlando was just beaten by Wakefield for third place.

Autumn Champions.

Glengarry, Bag and Baggage and Sadko were the only starters for this race over a mile and a quarter and they finished in that order. For the first mile the race was quite uninteresting as Sadko and Bag and Baggage set a very fast pace and completed the mile in a little over 2 minutes, but the last quarter was too much for them and the long-striding Glengarry won the race when he turned up a quarter of 20.3 seconds. He won by many lengths. Bag and Baggage made a good race of it for second place, but although Sadko was pushed for all he was worth, Bag and Baggage managed to get the verdict by a neck.

Tardy Stakes.

There were six starters for the mile race for "B" and "C" Class ponies and Bright Star (Mr. Pan) made no mistake about the race, although he only managed to win by a length from Gold Key. Mon Talisman did well to get third place. There was nothing in the race early on, Gold Key and Fortune Bay showing in front with Bright Star keeping comfortably behind. At the half mile post Bright Star caught up with the leaders and Gold Key raced him all the way home, going under in the last furlong and losing placidly by a

RIGHT TO A TRADE MARK

MESSRS. CALLARD AND BOWSER WIN CASE

CHINESE FIRM HELD TO HAVE INFRINGED

Shanghai, Dec. 6.—An interesting case has just been decided by the Bureau of Trade-marks in connection with an attempt to register a mark, similar to that used by Messrs. Callard & Bowser, the famous English makers of tobacco by a local Chinese firm. As a result of investigation the Bureau of Trade Marks found in favour of the English firm which had entered a protest.

It appears that in the Gazette issued by the Bureau in February of this year, there appeared particulars of an application by Kwan Sun Yuen Co., Ltd., of Nanking Road, Shanghai, for the registration of a "Cat and Dog" mark which except for some slight differences in drawing was similar in appearance to the "Cat and Dog" mark of the protesting company.

In the protest lodged with the Bureau, Messrs. Callard & Bowser, who had already applied for registration of their own mark, stated the following as grounds for their action:—

"The Opponents' 'Cat and Dog' mark has a very close resemblance to the 'Cat and Dog' mark of the applicants, registration whereof has been applied for in respect of similar articles. The general appearance of the label depicting the cat, dog, broken bowl of milk in the background and their respective positions are almost identical to the applicant's mark and are indeed suspected of being an imitation."

"The candies on which applicants use the 'Cat and Dog' mark have, in fact, been imported into China for a great number of years for sale and are well known on the market, and customers distinguish them by their 'Cat and Dog' label. Consequently the similarity of the respondents' mark is sufficient to cause confusion in the minds of the public and to deceive them into purchasing the respondents' goods in mistake for the applicants' goods."

Kwan Sun Yuen's Reply.

In their reply the Kwan Sun Yuen Co., Ltd., replied that the mark they sought to register was obtained by inviting tenders for a design and they had repeatedly given careful consideration of the one chosen before applying for registration. The design, it was urged, was accepted by the Bureau, and then, unexpectedly six months afterwards, there suddenly appeared a "Cat and Dog" mark of the applicants. The filing of such a protest six months after its publication in the Gazette, the respondents argued was unreasonable.

With regard to the statement that the applicants had already applied for registration of their own mark, respondents said it was not known when the application was made and approved, or what was the number of the registration certificate, and contended that if application were made after their own then the applicants had intentionally encroached upon the respondents' rights.

With regard to the statement that the applicants' goods had been on sale a number of years in China, respondents inquired why the mark was not seen on the market, and contended that there was no evidence of sale produced before the Bureau. Respondents alleged that applicants' allegations in this respect were untrue. Finally it was claimed that the contention that re-

CHINESE CONSULAR CHANGES IN U.S.A.

Nanking, Nov. 25.—The following Consuls have been appointed by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs to assume charge of the newly created branch consulates at Galveston, Los Angeles, and Norfolk, in the United States: Vice-Consul Kiang Yi Sheng, of the Consulate-General at San Francisco, is to be transferred to the Consulate at Los Angeles. Vice-Consul Wang Ching-Lun, of the Consulate-General at Chicago, to the Consulate at Galveston. Vice-Consul Chang Tso Chang, of the Consulate-General at New York, to the Consulate at Norfolk.

THE HONAM BUND

WORK TO START AT ONCE

The Municipal Bureau of Public Works has received a report from the contractors for the construction of the Bund at Honam that work will be commenced immediately. The part of the Bund that is to be constructed now extends from the foot of the Pearl River Bridge to the Inland Port at Tanu Tou Tsui, and covers a distance of 7,300 feet.

Respondents' mark was an imitation of applicants' mark was unreasonable, and urged that if a national carries on his trade and decides upon his trade mark and applies for registration according to law, and the right of exclusive use is encroached upon by a foreign merchant the national should be protected. The respondents "Prayed" that native products should be upheld, that the protest of Callard & Bowser Ltd. be dismissed and that their application for registration of a mark with an identical name be refused.

Messrs. Hansons made a brief rejoinder and subsequently the director of the Bureau of Trade-marks, Mr. Jolsen Ho, rendered a decision to the effect that the trade mark of Kwan Sun Yuen Co., Ltd. should be cancelled giving the following reasons:—

Reasons for Decision.

"The Opponents previously applied for registration of the 'Cat and Dog' mark for the use on tobacco under the Candies Category in Class 43, specified in Article 37 of the Detailed Regulations of the Trade-Mark Law, which was duly approved and published in the 60th issue of the Trade Mark Gazette as Application in Order No. 11370. Subsequently the applicants protested on account of the said mark having a close resemblance to their 'Cat and Dog' mark which was applied for registration and prior use. Thereupon the Opponents filed an answer as ordered."

"In this case the marks of the two parties are similarly called 'Cat and Dog' and the make-up of the marks also have a similar cat and dog as the principal parts and both marks have two bowls to connect with them. Therefore the positions, appearance, meaning and names of the two marks can be said to be entirely identical. Even the colours used have a close resemblance. There is certainly a risk of confusion in trade. However the applicants had produced documentary evidence of the years of use of their mark, the registration of which was granted in accordance with the provisions of Article 4 of the Trade-Mark Law and for which Registration Certificate No. 18978 was issued. Their right of exclusive use is absolute and the Opponents' mark has only been approved of, but of course cannot be set up against it. Therefore the application in Order No. 11370 of the 'Cat and Dog' mark should be cancelled in accordance with law."

NANKING SPORTS VENTURE

GOLF AND COUNTRY CLUB TO BE FORMED

SINO-FOREIGN BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Nanking.—As the outcome of a well-attended meeting at the International Club, Nanking is to have a new club, to be called the Nanking Golf and Country Club. Mr. W. H. Donald, who is well-known in the north, presided at the meeting, which discussed the constitution of the new club.

After the scheme had been unanimously approved, the following officers were elected to serve on the board of directors:—

Dr. Lo Wen Kan, President.

Mr. A. Wilden and Mr. C. C. Liu, Vice-Presidents.

Mr. W. P. Colman, Hon. Secretary.

Mr. Z. T. Ing, Hon. Treasurer.

Mr. S. F. Chang, Mr. M. Fischer, Mr. S. W. Glass, Mr. J. M. Hansen, Mr. Nelson T. Johnson, Mr. Willys R. Peck, and Dr. T. L. Wang, directors.

The idea of forming a Golf and Country Club in Nanking goes back as far as December, 1929, when Mr. Sun Fo, then Minister of Railways, made available a piece of land in the National Park area, near the Purple Mountain, to be used as golf links. Dr. C. T. Wang, former Minister of Foreign Affairs, also took a keen interest in the project, and was largely responsible for getting work begun on the links.

However, owing to unsettled political conditions and the departure of a number of the original enthusiasts from the capital, the scheme had to be suspended. Interest recently was revived by the present Minister and Vice-Minister of Foreign Affairs, both of whom are very keen on having such a club.

It is expected that the new club, when functioning, will play an important part in the social life of the capital.

TSINGTAO SELECTED AS BASE

NEW DOCK ORDERED

Tientsin, Dec. 2.—The Peking branch of the Military Council according to instructions given them by Chang Hsueh Liang, have been trying to find a base for the former N. E. Fleet under the command of Chou Feng Lich, and they proposed three ports in N. China, viz: Chinwangtao, Chefoo and Tsingtao. After further discussion they selected Tsingtao as the most suitable port, although Chinwangtao may be a better port than Tsingtao, but as it is facing Chefoo, which is the naval base of the Maichyk fleet, this would assume a threatening attitude so they finally decided on Tsingtao.

Chang Hsueh Liang has therefore given orders to the Commander of that fleet to build a new dock at Tsingtao 500 feet long at a cost of $400,000 so as to give more facilities to the fleet.

SOUTH-WEST CHINA RAILWAY SCHEME

PLANS UNDER CONSIDERATION

ESTIMATE OF COST $170 MILLIONS

CANTON, Dec. 10.—With reference to the proposal of the Southwestern authorities for the construction of a railway linking up the provinces of Kwangtung, Kwangsi, Kweichow, Yunnan and Szechuen, to promote the development of these provinces, it is learned that the draft of one plan for the projected line has been drawn up and submitted to a preparatory committee now investigating the feasibility of the scheme.

The scheme fixes the termini of the line at Yanchow, in southern Kwangtung, and Chungking in Szechuen. The whole length of the line would be 1,855 miles, comprising the following distances in the different provinces concerned:—Kwangtung, 35 miles; Kwangsi 321 miles; Kweichow, 303 miles; Yunnan, 483 miles and Szechuen, 745 miles.

170 Million Dollars Needed.

A rough estimate of the cost of the railway has been placed at about $170,000,000. This works out at approximately $92,000 Mex. per mile, and includes the cost for surveys, purchase of land, construction, and general equipment.

It is further planned that each province undertake the building of the section of the line within its territory, in which case the completion of the railway will be greatly expedited. The work of construction is to be spread out over a period of six years as follows:—

Six Year Plan.

1st year—surveying of route;
2nd year—building of road bed;
3rd and 4th years—laying of tracks and construction of bridges;
5th year—construction of stations, workshops;

6th year—miscellaneous works to complete the line.
The plans will be more fully and officially discussed with the eventual formation of a committee for the railway of representative of every province concerned.

CHRISTIANITY IN CHINA

VETERAN WORKER ON THE STRUGGLE WITH COMMUNISM

Canton.—More than 100 people sat to a Chinese dinner at the Chinese Y. M. C. A. with Dr. Stanley Jones as the honoured guest.

Miss Yat Tait Law introduced Dr. Jones, who said that he was impressed with the way women are taking their place in China, for example with the fact that a Chinese lady was presiding over that evening's meeting. He expressed his agreement with Miss Law's statement that the critical moment has arrived in the history of the Chinese church. He was glad, however, that the Christian movement is now unshackled from ecclesiastical and political domination and being so, is free to flourish and stand on its own merits.

The next ten years, in his opinion, will be the best years for Christian workers in this country. Communism, he added, is doing its utmost to force its baneful way into China and the Christian movement is the force that can counteract it successfully. He congratulated workers who are in China to-day and have the opportunity to push this movement to a successful head and concluded by saying that Christianity does not destroy Chinese culture but blends with it, imparting vigor to it and sustaining it.

SWATOW NOTES

GAMBLING TO THE DOGS

CLUBS CLOSED

FANTAN EXCLUDED

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

Swatow, Dec. 8. Following the example of Canton a mandate has been issued here forbidding all officials and Government servants to gamble, in the clubs, restaurants and even at home. Great consternation, if not surprise, was caused when one afternoon a police proclamation was suddenly promulgated ordering the immediate closing of all gambling clubs (and dens) without any chance for liquidating their affairs. About a hundred clubs are affected and the order, though carried out to the letter, was bitterly resented by owners and frequenters of these places.

The position regarding gambling, for the time being, is that only Government employees are banned, while mah jong, until the end of the year, will be allowed in restaurants and residences for people of other vocations. It is said that after January 1, no form of gambling will be permitted anywhere. However, as fantan revenues swell Government coffers, this practice is to continue as before. It is possible that mah jong may still be allowed in private houses if a tax is paid each time the game is played. If absolutely stopped then life will be next to intolerable in the Chinese opinion.

An interesting social event last Saturday was the announcement of the engagement of Mr. E. Polverino of the Chinese Customs to Miss Nona Gakoff. The bride-to-be is the niece of Mr. Lankin, who is also in the Customs service at Swatow. Many friends attended the dinner party given at the Customs Club, when there was dancing till the early hours of the morning. The wedding will probably be next April.

HONG KONG, DECEMBER 12, 1932.

THE LEAGUE DOES ITS BEST!

LEADING Chinese statesmen have for months past warned their countrymen that China can only save herself by her own efforts. Nations do not go to war except to protect themselves or to secure new interests on a scale commensurate with the sacrifices involved. And the lessons of modern warfare are that it is a bad economic proposition. The theories advanced twenty years ago by NORMAN ANGEL in "The Great Illusion" have been terribly vindicated.

In the Manchurian dispute we have another aspect of modern warfare, the spectacle of the Powers realising their economic inability to intervene with armed force, whatever their sympathies may be. It is no use blaming the League of Nations. America as a signatory to the Kellogg Pact, bearing the name of one of her own statesmen, has quite as clear a duty to intervene—if intervention be deemed necessary in the interests of international justice—as any of the League Powers.

The anomalies of the situation increase as the Geneva discussions continue. Four powers, without the least direct concern in the dispute, namely, the Irish Free State, Czechoslovakia, Spain and Sweden moved a resolution, to which the Japanese reply was, that if carried, Japan would withdraw from the League. Japan has, incidentally, repeated that in maintaining her present policy in Manchuria she is prepared to face any sanctions that the League may impose. The crisis has for the moment been averted by referring the whole matter to the Commission of Nineteen.

The League is in the position of a judge without any kind of officer to enforce his decisions. That is not to condemn the League as useless for despite its severe limitations it can do much even in so extraordinarily complex a problem as that of Manchuria. If there had been no League of Nations the issue by now would be closed. The Powers would have protested, Japan and China would have issued official and unofficial statements, and the fighting would have continued. It may be suggested that that is precisely what has happened, but has the League done this much, that world opinion has been concentrated upon the problem and has had a moderating effect upon the actions of all parties concerned. The matter has been ventilated; the practical principle established that conflicts between two great nations are not the concern merely of the combatants; that aggression and atrocity cannot be hidden. The effects of such actions upon prestige and upon credit are bound to be expressed not only in statecraft, but in finance and commerce.

Lord CURZON, that most ardent supporter and adherent of the League of Nations, has urged the Assembly of the League to adopt the LYTTON Report. But the difficulty is that neither China nor Japan really accept it. The former pays lip service to the Report through certain spokesmen, while the national leaders of the Chinese Republic denounce it. To the ordinary man the LYTTON Report is the sole guide to a problem of which he knows nothing, except that it holds the seeds of future war. It was the best that the League could do. It has obtained wide commendation but it seems unlikely to achieve its object of bringing the parties to the dispute together. The League has taken up that task and the action of the Assembly in referring the Manchurian dispute to the Commission of Nineteen will at least keep the League in some degree of contact with the problem. The withdrawal of Japan from the League would, in effect, result in the breaking of such influence as the Powers still possess in this dispute. Japan has by no means shown herself indifferent to world opinion, or the break with the League would have come months ago. It is to be hoped that the League will submit terms for the settlement of the Manchurian issue of a nature that will allow negotiation. The alternative is a blood and iron settlement that neither China nor Russia will accept as permanent, and they will watch for their opportunity in Japan's hour of difficulty.

Reading that the Berlin motorist who uses his horn too vigorously is fined, the American who has been near the centre of a first-class traffic snarl will wonder why his Government doesn't borrow the idea some day and pay off the national debt.

Dandelion Rubber!

Soviet Russia has found that the dandelion contains a substance which preliminary investigation has established as equal in quality to natural rubber. Perhaps this explains that plant's habit of springing up despite all efforts to keep it down.

Best Sellers in London.

Members and character studies, says a Home paper, seem to be favourite reading for the moment, since the call is mainly for Mr. Bruce Lockhart's "Memoirs of a British Agent," Mr. H. C. Armstrong's "Grey Wolf," Mr. Julian Duguid's "Tiger-Man," and Mr. Compton Mackenzie's "Prince Charlie."

Virginia Woolf's "Common Reader" still goes well. And so does a different type of book—"Deep Water and Shallow" by William Albert Robinson.

In fiction, after Mr. Galsworthy's "Flowering Wilderness," which naturally comes first, Miss E. M. Dole's "The Provincial Lady Goes Further," Miss Lorna Rees' "First Night," Mrs. Pearl Buck's "Sons," and Mr. Eric Linklater's "Men of New Year" are the novels most in demand.

Peaceful Russia!

Soviet Russia celebrated the fifteenth anniversary of the Bolshevik revolution by ordering a big rise in the pay of every member of its army and navy. If the Soviet carries out some of its professed ideals, it will inform its soldiers and sailors that while it is paying them more and more, it is expecting them to do less and less to earn their wage.

Galoshes.

Most of us imagined that those Victorian atrocities, galoshes, had passed into the limbo of forgotten things. It appears however that galoshes of many colours, materials and shapes are common in the streets of Helsinki. Yet visitors to the city are surprised at the rarity of umbrellas and mackintoshes despite the fact that spring and autumn are often very wet in Finland. The galoshes are frequently a decorative addition to a costume and they serve to keep the feet warm as well as dry. Once their feet are well housed, however, Finlanders seem to be oblivious to the elements. Umbrellas are said to be owned by only one in every ten of the inhabitants of Helsinki.

Efficiency is Real Beauty.

"Ever since the renaissance we have been decorating buildings and giving them a classic touch. Simple honest strength has not been considered good taste. Far too much attention has been given to the frills of architecture and not enough to mechanics." That reply was made by Mr. Joseph Emberton, the architect, to Dean Luge's criticism of modern architecture.

"Steel and concrete are materials of a new age," said Mr. Emberton. "They have vast possibilities, and there is no justification whatever for imposing on the materials of today the limitations of another age."

"Beauty needs no adornment, and a building which is 100 per cent. efficient for its purpose is beautiful."

Sun Direction on a Cloudy Day.

How can one tell directions by the sun "when there is no sun?"

This may sound like a trick question, but the answer is that there is "some sun," enough to cast a faint shadow, even on a cloudy day.

Using this fact, a forest ranger in Idaho has devised a way of getting his directions on a sunless day. He found that if the tip of a knife or a pen point is set upright on the thumb nail the shadow will show, though faintly.

Having obtained the location of the sun, all a person has to do is to point the hour hand of his watch at the sun, and halfway between the hour hand and 12 o'clock on the dial will be due south, it is explained. Many persons who frequent the big open spaces know this and can navigate as long as they can see the sun. Now they can get their bearings on a cloudy day.

The Persian Navy.

The Shah of Persia last month inspected what is called the Persian Navy. This has been constructed in Italy and arrived a few weeks ago in the Persian Gulf. It includes six gun-boats, which will be used mainly for patrol work and in the prevention of smuggling, duties that have hitherto been undertaken exclusively by the British Navy.

The Persians are taking their Navy very seriously, for they are sensitive over matters concerning their amir people in the Persian Gulf, which it is the professed aim of the Shah to satisfy.

On their northern coasts, which fringe the Caspian Sea, the Persian Fleet will not operate, for the Bolsheviks will tolerate no interference in their monopoly of the Caspian.

How the Persians will perform in the difficult waters of the Gulf remains to be seen. Centuries ago they were notable sailors, as all readers of the classics know well.

Looking Back 25 Years.

Besides the representations in the Chinese festival procession recorded in our last issue there were four others worthy of mention, namely the evils attending on opium-smoking, debauchery, drinking and gambling. One of the models displayed a home where all was peace and happiness until the father caught the visions which are said to follow on the smoking of opium. Later the "black smoke" rose, the man of his wonted vitality and the once proud family of a happy father sinks into the misery which all excesses bring. To further enhance the evil effects of the opium habit, a large pine, made to resemble a native coffin, was displayed, in it being an unfortunate man whose life has passed away with the uselessness of "smoke." Hong Kong Daily Press, December 12, 1907.

PARTNER WHO WAS TOO TRUSTING

LANDED WITH FIRM'S LIABILITIES.

BANKRUPTCY PROCEEDINGS. ADJOURNED.

When the petition against Hoine Arfas, of 1, Felix Villas, Pokfulam, junior partner in the firm of Messrs. Stager & Co., 2, Connaught Road, came before the Chief Justice (Sir Joseph Kemp) in the Bankruptcy Court on Saturday, Mr. Agassiz (Official Receiver) expressed the opinion that "this is a case of genuine misfortune. He went into the firm blindfold."

Mr. D. B. Evans (Messrs. Johnson, Stokes and Master), for the debtor, said that his client joined the firm in February of this year. When he joined, he knew nothing of the liabilities of the firm, and was, in fact, told that the business was in a flourishing condition. Now he found himself faced with liabilities amounting to about $300,000, which were mainly in respect of exchange contracts made long before debtor entered the firm. Debtor's private debts were about $3,000 and his assets would be more than $1,000.

Debtor stated that he was shown a balance sheet which showed the capital of the firm to be $120,000, and a profit for the previous year. He later found that exchange contracts had been settled for about double the amount of the business. He had taken no part in the financial management of the firm. The actual deficit on the exchange business was about $180,000, contracted before he had entered the firm.

"He Was Careless."

The Official Receiver: I leave the matter entirely in your Lordship's hands. I think this is a case of genuine misfortune. He went into the firm blindfold, and now finds himself responsible for the whole of the liabilities. I admit he was careless in going into the firm.

The Chief Justice asked if there were any proceedings against the firm so far, and Mr. Evans replied there was a writ against the firm, but not against the debtor personally. The claim was for $2,000.

Case Adjourned Sine Die.

His Lordship: I feel a bit of a difficulty in this case, because of the practical and entire absence of assets, and I propose to consider my decision on the point. I will adjourn it sine die, and if any debtors press, and the matter becomes urgent, you can apply for an appointment in Chambers.

Mr. Evans asked for an order for the stay of proceedings in respect of the claim.

His Lordship: What stage has the action reached?

Mr. Evans: I think appearances has to be entered to-day.

His Lordship: I have not got the plaintiff's of that action before me.

Mr. Evans informed his Lordship that the solicitor acting for the plaintiff was in Court.

His Lordship considered the matter and announced that he was not prepared to grant a stay, but he would give his decision soon.

CONCESSION TO MOTOR DEALERS

NO PAYMENT OF EXTRA LICENCE ON CARS IN STOCK BEFORE OCTOBER 13.

The Governor-in-Council has, as a result of petitions by local motor dealers, granted an exemption from payment of the recently imposed twenty per cent. duty on all foreign motor vehicles actually landed in Hong Kong before 4 p.m. on October 13.

The exemption will not apply to vehicles in transit on October 13, when the Ordinance imposing the duty was promulgated.

The concession will cost the Treasury $150,000, as the full value of unsold foreign cars in the Colony on October 13 was $750,000.

The remission further allows the purchaser of any vehicle which was in stock before the promulgation of the Ordinance, imposing the duty of twenty per cent., a refund, but this is a matter between the dealer and the purchaser. It is understood that few, if any, dealers increased their prices by 20 per cent., many of them paying ten or fifteen per cent. of the duty themselves. In this case, the rebate to the purchaser would only be the difference between the selling price of the vehicle before October 13, and the price actually paid after that date. The rebate of the duty will assist dealers to sell present stocks, business in foreign cars having been very scarce since the imposition of the duty.

PROBLEMS OF DISARMAMENTGERMANY TO RETURN TO CONFERENCE

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

GENEVA, Dec. 11. THE declaration signed by representatives of the five Powers, which secures Germany's return to the Disarmament Conference states: The British, French and Italian Governments declared that one of the principles which will guide the Conference will be to grant to Germany by other Powers (who are to disarm by treaty) equality of rights, the methods of application of which will be discussed by the Conference. The British, French, Italian and German Governments join in the solemn re-affirmation that all European States will not resort to force. The Governments of the United States and the other four Powers are resolved to co-operate in the Conference to seek a substantial reduction and limitation of armaments.

FUTURE OF U.S.
BATTLESHIPS?PROPOSAL THEY ALL BE DECOMMISSIONED

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

WASHINGTON, Dec. 11. A BILL proposing that all battleships in the U.S. Navy should be decommissioned, was introduced to the Committee of Representatives by Mr. James McIntire who is a believer in fast cruisers. Mr. Carl Vinson, Chairman of the House Naval Affairs Committee, promised its consideration.

PAYMENT
DEFERREDFINAL PERFORMANCE AT STAR THEATREBEHIND THE SCENES AFTER THE LAST ACT

Before a capacity house the Amateur Dramatic Club gave their final performance of "Payment Deferred" on Saturday evening at the Star Theatre, Kowloon. Many of the large audience were paying their second visit to the fine production, notwithstanding the fact that the play as written by Jeffrey Dell has an amount of local criticism levelled at it, and to these and the assembly generally Mrs. Grossman and her clever band of players offered excellent entertainment.

Actually, the play went better on Saturday evening than it has done throughout the entire season; most of the players having grown into their parts through repetition, the company showed that they had made a marked improvement.

It has been stated recently that "Payment Deferred" is a play with a doleful sordid theme, nevertheless, a genuine regret was felt by audience and players alike when the curtain fell for the last time on Saturday. Deserving of the most honours in connection with the presenting of this drama are Mrs. Grossman, who produced the play, and Margaret Birt and John Roberts who played the leading roles, and it was a pleasure to see that they were not forgotten at the final curtain when wonderful bouquets of flowers and other gifts were handed to them over the footlights. The other members of the cast were also the recipients of like gifts.

A Pleading Ceremony.

As the audience streamed from the theatre they did not realize that a very pleasing little ceremony was being enacted on the stage behind the curtain. The cast, however, had gathered here to show how much they appreciated the work put in by their producer in making "Payment Deferred" such a definite success, and in a happy speech "Mr. Marble," now a totally different character, asked Mrs. Grossman to accept a handsome silver salver, inscribed with the names of the players, as a token of their regard and esteem. Later the producer, the cast, and the various helpers at "Payment Deferred" sat down to a late, or rather early, supper in a room adjoining the stage.

At this pleasant function Mr. Cyril Chapman, President of the Amateur Dramatic Club, in a speech made happy reference to Mrs. Grossman's production being one likely to equal any the A.D.C. has connected itself with.

This happy supper party thus ended a production of a play that will live long in the memories of the producer, the players, and particularly their Hong Kong audience.

BRITISH DEBT TO AMERICATO BE PAID IN GOLD

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

LONDON, Dec. 10. THE Chancellor of the Exchequer, Mr. Neville Chamberlain, just returned from Paris, was in consultation yesterday with Acting Premier Stanley Baldwin and other Ministers regarding the war debts question which was discussed in the light of the American reply to the British Note and of the Anglo-French Ministerial conversations in Paris.

Final decision as to the terms of the communication to be addressed to the United States Government will be recorded at a formal meeting of the Cabinet, probably on Monday or Tuesday of next week. Prime Minister, Mr. Ramsay MacDonald, and Foreign Secretary, Sir John Simon, may return from Geneva to attend the Cabinet session. A factor in the situation to which the British Government attach the utmost importance is the maintenance of the Lausanne agreements. In the situation created by the refusal of the American Government to postpone the December payments, consultation with the French Ministers was an essential step to this end.

Ready Appreciation.

It is understood that the French Ministers showed a ready appreciation of the British desire to preserve the Lausanne settlement intact.

Although the final Cabinet decision has yet to be taken, it is generally assumed here that the payment to the United States will be made by Britain next week and that that payment will be made in gold.

Also it is believed, the payment will be accompanied by a definite proposal regarding the early examination of the whole debt question in the light of the present circumstances.

It is generally understood that the British Government has decided to pay America on December 15 in gold, which has probably been earmarked for this purpose.

It is not expected that it will be sent to America at once.

Reply to France.

PARIS, Dec. 10. The American note to France rejects the possibility of suspension of the next instalment of the war debt and reiterates President Hoover's views as to the possibility of subsequent adjustment by the offering to America of compensatory economic benefits.

The Chamber of the Foreign Affairs Commission yesterday voted in favour of paying the December instalment of the war debts to the United States, subject to the summing up of a conference to review the whole problem of the debts.

A Fresh Study Urged.

[REUTER'S AMERICAN SERVICE.]

NEW YORK, Dec. 10. The board of Managers of the New York Exchange yesterday passed a resolution urging a fresh study of the war debt problem "as an economic, rather than a political question." They also urge no drastic action should be taken in respect of any nation so that trade with America should be restricted.

Desire for Debate.

[BRITISH WIRELESS SERVICE.]

ROOBY, Dec. 10. A desire for a debate on the question of payment of the instalment of the American debt due next Thursday, is being displayed among a section of members of the House of Commons.

No decision is likely to be taken on this matter until Monday. While the Government are understood to recognize that a debate before the Christmas recess is desirable, they would prefer it should take place after payment has been made next Thursday.

It is understood that the Labour Party, while not opposing payment, prefer the Commons should have an opportunity of expressing its views before payment is made and there will be further conversations on this subject on Monday.

It is generally expected the Note to be sent to America by the British Government will be of a character which is unlikely to necessitate a further reply from the United States, and it may be unnecessary to call a special meeting of the Cabinet at which the Government's formal decision to make payment of the December instalment in gold is to be recorded.

The usual weekly meeting of the Cabinet takes place on Wednesday.

COPPER CONFERENCE
BREAKS DOWNNO AGREEMENT TO CUT
PRODUCTION

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

NEW YORK, Dec. 10. IT is understood here in well-informed quarters that the International Copper Conference, which was broken down without any agreement being reached to curtail production. The export price of copper broke to five cents a pound and leading copper shares declined everywhere recently owing to the tremendous over-production and waning demand.

CRITICISM OF U.S.
BANKING SYSTEMCOMPTROLLER OF CUR-RENCY SPEAKS OUT

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

WASHINGTON, Dec. 11. SEVER criticism of the American banking system was made by the U.S. Comptroller of Currency in his Annual Report in which he points out that in the first ten months of the year, 1,190 banks, with deposits of 604 million dollars, suspended payment. He declares that continued improvement in business and support by credit agencies of the Government will not in themselves correct the defects in the banking structure.

AMERICAN CITIZEN
AND WAR DEBTSSIR A. SALTER'S ADDRESS TO PEACE COUNCIL

[BRITISH WIRELESS SERVICE.]

ROOBY, Dec. 10. SIR Arthur Salter, addressing the National Peace Council Conference, yesterday, put the point of view of the American citizen on war debts, but urged that the enlightened self-interest of the United States demanded cancellation or reduction. European creditors of reparations at Lausanne had committed Germany's remaining liability for a final fixed capital sum and had provided that this should be discharged in a way which would never involve an annual payment by Germany of more than about one-tenth of what was required by the Young Plan of three years ago. That was not altruism but enlightened self-interest. He was sure that if America acted similarly it would also prove immensely to the advantage of the whole world and of herself.

But if people in Britain would look at the situation coolly and sympathetically they should at least understand, though they might regret America's reluctance, peace and economic progress depended in every sphere upon co-operation between America and Europe, and that in turn depended upon public temper and psychology of the peoples of the two continents.

War debts was one, but as President Hoover has pointed out only one of many pressing problems. Others were now focused on preparations for the World Economic Conference. There they should aim at first, a world policy of controlled deflation; secondly, they must restore and reform the world's credit system. This meant dealing with existing indebtedness, encouraging new lending and securing that in future it is better directed than in the past. Thirdly, they must reduce trade barriers.

The League Assembly pursues its examination of the Manchurian problem. At the resumption of its proceedings this afternoon a resolution was submitted by M. Hymans to the League Assembly, which reads as follows:

"The Assembly requests that a special committee be established, firstly to study the Lytton Report and the observations, opinions and suggestions expressed in the Assembly, secondly to draw up proposals with a view to settling the Sino-Japanese dispute, and thirdly to submit these proposals to the Assembly as early as possible."

M. Avenol was elected by 43 votes to 42 to succeed Sir Eric Drummond as Secretary-General of the League.

The Assembly suspended its meeting sine die this afternoon. It is believed that the Committee of Nineteen will meet on Monday.

SINO-JAPANESE
DISPUTECLEARER LEADERSHIP
DEMANDED

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

LONDON, Dec. 10. Sir John Simon's wise and moderate counsel has prevailed before the delegates at the sessions of the Assembly of the League of Nations, declares the Daily Mail to-day in a leading article.

While the Committee of Nineteen is preparing a report, the paper goes on to say, there is ample time for tempers to cool and the whole difficult question may solve itself.

Lord Cecil, however, is still anxious. The situation, he declares is still menacing.

Lord Cecil demanded a clearer leadership from Great Britain in the Manchurian issue when he spoke before the National Peace Council Conference assembled to-day. He said he would like to hear that the Assembly of the League of Nations had entirely and without reserve adopted the Lytton Report.

"We should not allow ourselves to be moved by unmanly language or threats of either of the two parties most vitally concerned."

"I trust the British Government will recommend quite definitely not only what the Assembly had better not do, but what it had better," he added.

ALL QUIET IN JEHOLFEARS OF CLASH

MR. KO LEONG HOE
TO RETIREMANAGING DIRECTOR OF THE HO HONG BANK

The many friends and associates of Mr. Ko Leong Hoe will learn with great disappointment that, for health reasons, he has been obliged to resign his post of Managing Director of the Ho Hong Bank, Ltd. It is with much regret that we announce the severance of his long connection with this institution, which he had, in no small measure, helped to build up.

Before coming to Hong Kong, he served the institution in Malaya, and was mainly responsible for the establishment of the branches in Hong Kong and Shanghai, the activities of which he had so ably directed since their opening.

A Popular Chief.

He was much liked, and was held in great esteem by the members of the staff, to whom he had always given his most sympathetic consideration, and for whose welfare he had always shown deepest concern. To what extent the members of the staff have appreciated his kindnesses to them individually, and what he had done for them collectively, can be gauged from the following address which the Shanghai staff presented to him on November 23, 1932. We understand that a similar address will be presented to him by the Hong Kong staff on his return to this port.

TO
MR. KO LEONG HOE, ESQUIRE,
MANAGING DIRECTOR,
THE HO HONG BANK, LIMITED,
SHANGHAI.

"We, the undersigned, the Management and Staff of The Ho Hong Bank, Limited, Shanghai, take great pleasure in presenting to you, on your resignation, as Managing Director of Hong Kong and Shanghai Branches, this address, in token of our respect for and high esteem of you."

By your resignation, the Bank has lost a most capable and valuable Officer, for it has been through your untiring efforts that these two Branches, of which you have the distinction of being the Managing Director right from their inception, have made remarkable progress and the prestige which the Bank has enjoyed, bears eloquent testimony to your executive ability and wise supervision and direction.

During your tenure of office, you have shown the utmost consideration and courtesy to us and have evinced keen interest in our welfare. Always approachable and kind, you have endeared yourself to all who have had the privilege and pleasure of being your subordinates.

It is therefore with profound regret that we received the news of your resignation for we have not only lost a good superior but also a kind friend. We fervently hope, however, that the leisure which you have so deservedly earned, will enable you to regain your health and vigour and that health and happiness will be in store for you for many more years to come.

Shanghai, November 23, 1932.

There were large crowds yesterday afternoon at the Roman Catholic Cathedral compound where the annual fair of the Society St. Vincent de Paul was held. Those who went there found many attractions usual at charity bazaars, but the outstanding feature was the large number of toys exhibited.

Raffles, lotteries, races, pony racing and all sorts of competitions were organised. The Society exhibited a dairy farm which was very popular, especially a weight guessing competition for which the prize was a goose.

The bazaar opened at 3.30 p.m. and closed just before midnight. The motor car draw, for which tickets had been sold all over the Colony, took place at 11 p.m., and Officer Pearce with ticket No. 1884, other members which drew consolation prizes were as follows: 2810, 2904, 2226, 670, 2250.

We learn that the total proceeds are approximately $21,000.

ATTEMPT TO WRECK
"ZARIA" OFFICECOMMUNIST PLOT NIPPED
IN THE BUD

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

SHANGHAI, Dec. 11. AN attempt by Chinese Communists here to wreck the office of the "Zaria," a local White Russian newspaper, was nipped in the bud last night as a result of smart work on the part of the French police authorities, who were forewarned of the plot.

Considerable commotion was caused by the incident, as the demonstrators, armed with bricks and other missiles, including bags of sand, stormed the premises of the Zaria and attempted to destroy the printing presses. Police bore down on the crowd and soon had the situation under control.

Fourteen arrests were made, the prisoners being charged with creating Communist disturbances. Detectives and plain-clothes men helped to frustrate the attempt of the mob at violence.

No damage was done to the property of the newspaper.

SAVAGE WOUNDING
AT VICTORIA GAOLPRISONER MAY LOSE BOTH ARMS

The story of a savage attack by one prisoner on another at Victoria Gaol, was told at the Central Magistrate's court, on Saturday, before Mr. Grantham.

It appears that Tse Kau, the accused, who was charged with malicious cutting and wounding, was on bad terms with the injured man. The victim, Tam Tak, was employed as a painter and the accused was a tinsmith.

Last Wednesday afternoon, it is alleged that Tse Kau went to the paint shop where Tam Tak was at work.

The men are stated to have had a short quarrel, following which Tse Kau produced an axe, which he is presumed to have obtained from the carpenter's shop. With this weapon, he struck at his victim.

It is alleged that Tse Kau made repeated attempts to hit Tam Tak over the head but there was a table between them, and Tam managed to dodge his assailant to some extent. He received, however, severe injuries to his forearm, and on removal to the Hospital subsequently, it was found the bones had been fractured and the muscles severed.

Tse Kau was overpowered by warders and European prisoners

STAPLETON BATS WELL IN OPENING GAME

BOWLERS RETURN GOOD FIGURES

Kowloon Cricket Club could only manage a draw against a weak Navy side in their Senior League engagement at the Navy ground on Saturday. K.C.C. opened disastrously, the first 5 wickets falling for 48 runs, but McInnes (52), Burnett (11), and Smith (24) managed to pull the game around to a more favourable position by helping to bring the score up to 155. Lieut. Marsham batted splendidly for the Navy, compiling 45 out of 100 runs in quick time. He received poor support, except from Shpt. McWilliam who put together 20 runs.

At the close of play the Navy were 45 runs in arrears with 4 wickets in hand. The drawing of this match with the Navy might seriously jeopardise K.C.C.'s chances of annexing the league championship.

K.C.C.'s second eleven also drew with the Navy, who at the close of play, only required 32 runs to win with 4 wickets in hand. The feature of the match was the good form displayed by O. I. Stapleton, the ex-Interporter, who has recently returned to the K.C.C. after an absence of ten years.

Corpl. Meehan put up a brilliant all round performance for the Engineers against the Civil Service juniors by taking 6 for 58, and scoring 54. The Engineers, however, lost by 2 wickets.

The Club Trial unearthed a very useful slow bowler in J. Bicketts, the 1930 Oxford University soccer goalkeeper. Playing for "Tom" Hayward's XI, he claimed 7 for 11 to dismiss Alan Reid's XI for 22 after the opening partnership had realized 14.

The American returned many easy shots into the net, but Crawford excelled in the way he drew Vines to the net to pass him time and again with dazzling strokes. This is Crawford's first win over Vines, the latter having a straight sets victory at Wimbledon to his credit and four sets win in the first "Test" between America and Australia. Crawford reached to-day's final by defeating Harry Hopman while Vines eliminated C. Sproule.

NAVY XI SURPRISES LEAGUE LEADERS: ATHLETICS ALSO HEAVILY DEFEATED

The outstanding feature of Saturday's games was the defeat of the South Wales Borderers in the first division by the Navy by three goals to one. Hitherto the Borderers had been in the leading position in the league table, for though the E.A. were a point ahead of them, the Borderers had a game in hand. By their defeat on Saturday, they dropped two valuable points, which may ultimately decide the destination of the shield.

The Police and the Club put up a good game and the points went to the latter who scored two goals to the Police's one. The Chinese Athletic, playing Kowloon were severely trounced and were sent home with a defeat of five clear goals.

In the second division, the Athletics are in a strong position, as their success over the Borderers now places them in the leading position on the league table. In the third division, the Lincolns are leading.

KOWLOON v. ATHLETICS

Even the staunchest supporter of the Kowloon Football Club would not have predicted a victory of five clear goals when they were due to meet the Athletics on Saturday. The Chinese team proved very disappointing and it was not so much the brilliance of the Kowloon side as the usually poor combination of the Athletics that led to the big margin of superiority shown by the Kowloon.

NAVY v. BORDERERS

The Navy surprised the Borderers by sending them home defeated to the tune of three goals to one. The soldiers opened the scoring, and the composition of the Navy team did not suggest they would play havoc with the soldiers, but they managed to equalise before the interval. The team work of the sailors was much better than that of the Borderers.

SATURDAY'S MATCHES

The Borderers, Padmore shot the only goal for the soldiers while the equaliser came from Davis.

In the second half the Navy got the lead thanks to a beautiful shot from Purkins. The soldiers tried hard to equalise and it was unfortunate for them that at this stage Mullane had to leave the field due to injuries to his face. He returned later, but was obviously in pain and could do little. The Naval side went further ahead through Purkins just before the end.

CLUB v. POLICE

This game played at Caroline Hill was productive of some good football and the Police, although they went under by the odd goal in three, might have come away with honours even had they had more luck. The first half was scoreless, although both sides missed opportunities, the Police forwards playing very poor football.

In the second half things lived up when Fowler opened the scoring for the Club and the Police defenders had the struggle of their lives when the Club team pressed for a second goal to put the issue beyond doubt. They kept out the Clubmen for some time but ultimately, Howe put in the second goal for the Club. Before the end Stephens scored the only Police goals.

SECOND DIVISION

EWO v. KOWLOON

Ewo added two further points to their total when they met Kowloon, who were playing with ten men and proved no match for the Chinese team. The winners won by six clear goals, the goal scorers being Ho Ying Tin, (3) Chow Yin Fai (3).

There was not a single moment in the game when Kowloon looked as though they were going to extend the Ewo and the result is a fair indication of the disparity between the two sides.

LINCOLNS v. EASTERN

Playing at Chatham Road, the soldiers easily accounted for the Eastern A.A. by three goals to one. The game was played in the presence of a large crowd of spectators.

All the scoring was done in the first half, the Lincolns scoring through Barnes and Higgins (2) while Lai Ting Choi scored for Eastern.

Worrall, the Lincoln's centre half was the outstanding player on the field and broke up many a promising combination amongst the Chinese forwards.

ARTILLERY v. TSUNG TSIN

The Royal Artillery were fully expected to win when they met the Tsung Tsin, but they only managed to share the points, with honours slightly in favour of the Tsung Tsin.

Greenhields gave the Artillery the lead in the first half, but the soldiers were not able to maintain their advantage and Tso Shui Yiu sent in the equaliser before interval. In the second half of the game Snooks scored for the Artillery and Fung Hoi Hing levelled the score to 2-2 before the end.

ATHLETICS v. BORDERERS

There were several thousand spectators at this second division match played at Happy Valley on Saturday and here again, the result was surprising. The Chinese overwhelmed the soldiers who were playing without two of their best men in Wallace and Lakeman. This was a costly promotion for the soldiers as they lost their leadership in the second division and for the first time this season, were beaten. Shek Pui Tin and Young Kam Po scored for the Athletics in the first half and Hoo Chi Wing, Shek Pui Tin and Young Kam Po scored in the second half. The soldiers' only goal came from Matthias.

THIRD DIVISION

R.A.S.C. v. RECREIO

The R.A.S.C. who are among the leaders in the third division scored a decisive victory over the Recreio when these two teams met on Saturday. Gray, Sands (4) Flood and Hay were the goal scorers.

RADIO v. TAIKOO

Radio had a comparatively easy time taking full points from Taikoo who have yet to win their first match. Hassan, Elms, G. Singh and Tavaris scored for them and Taikoo did not reply.

LINCOLNS v. ATHLETICS

The Lincolns are now at the head of the league by virtue of their victory over the Athletics. They had a close shave of it as at the interval the Chinese were leading by two goals to one. In the second half, however, the soldiers managed to score three goals without conceding a single.

PORTUGAL DEFEAT SCOTLAND 5-3

SPLENDID GAME AT KOWLOON

The soccer match between teams representing Scotland and Portugal played at the Kowloon Football ground yesterday resulted in a win for Portugal by 5 goals to 3.

Scotland were first away, and after five minutes of thrilling football in which splendid passing and team work were shown, A. Duncan found the net for the Highlanders with a dazzling ground shot that left the goalies sprawling. Portugal rallied and rebounded Roger's goal, but could not break through until B. Gostipo, after cleverly gaining possession, sent the ball in to even the scores. At this stage the Gostano brothers were in continual prominence with clever passing, but time and again A. Duncan proved the stumbling block by clearing magnificently. V. Costa was doing a lot of useful work and initiated several attacks, but Roger in goal was defending splendidly.

Brilliant Passing.

Excitement ran high when Scotland, with a series of brilliant passes in which the ball flashed from man to man at a terrific pace, landed the ball at the feet of McGuinness, who made no mistake and sent it in an absolute winner, making the scores 2-1 in Scotland's favour. The Scots continued to play inspired football, and when a few minutes later Hill received and kicked their third goal, the applause was deafening. Portugal came back at them doggedly, but could not score. At the half time interval Scotland held a 3-1 lead, which, although contrary to all expectations, was well deserved.

Portugal started off with great determination and settling into their stride proceeded to show their true form. Racing up the field with the ball at his foot and only the goalies to beat, Rocha tapped the ball nicely round Roger to roll it into the net and bring Portugal's tally up to 2 goals. A. V. Gostano, who was responsible for a series of attacks on the opposing goal, but it was left to Rocha again to send the ball through the goal mouth with a perfect shot which made the score even.

Pace a Cracker.

The pace was now a cracker and weight was being freely thrown around, with the result that Sands was brought down heavily and sustained an injured leg. Portugal were playing with a disabled man, but continued to play inspired soccer. Nevertheless, Scotland were gradually fading out in the face of continued onslaughts but fought on gamely, and almost broke through with a diverted shot cleverly headed for goal by Hill who was playing a grand game for his side.

In a mix up in front of Scotland's goal A. Gostano sent the ball through with a shot that floored Rogers. With the score at 4-3 in Portugal's favour and each side a man short, Portugal's superiority became more and more pronounced, and when Rocha booted his team's fifth and his own third goal, the game was over.

Portugal were undoubtedly the better team, and did not allow the Scotmen to score during the second half.

A splendid game full of thrills, a treat to watch, and honours going to Portugal.
